

February 2, 2022 Advanced Session Speaker Biographies

Casey Fields, Manager for Municipal Advocacy, Municipal Association of SC

Casey Fields joined the Association in 2006. She is responsible for the Association's grassroots strategy for legislative issues and is the organization's primary contact with the news media. Previously, she was the legislative liaison at South Carolina First Steps to School Readiness and advocacy and public awareness coordinator at the SC Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy. Fields is a graduate of the College of Charleston and holds a master's degree from the University of South Carolina in social work and public administration.

Scott Slatton, Legislative and Public Policy Advocate, Municipal Association of SC

Scott Slatton's role on the legislative team focuses on researching, analyzing, and reporting on long-range municipal legislative proposals and building relationships and strategies for implementing these proposals. His career includes experience as a political writer on Capitol Hill, work as a human resource and information technology director, as a town manager in North Carolina and as a city manager in South Carolina. Scott received bachelor's degrees in history and political science from Winthrop University and a master's degree in public administration from George Mason University.