What is a Ballot Marking Device?

- A ballot marking device is a voting machine that allows voters to make ballot selections using a touchscreen
- The ballot marking device prevents the voter from over voting and prompts them if an office is left blank
- The voter then prints the ballot, reviews it, and places it in the scanner for tabulation
- A ballot marking device does not tabulate

What is a Scanner?

- After printing ballot, voter reviews ballot
- Voter inserts ballot into scanner
- Scanner scans ballot (tabulates vote and saves ballot image)
- Ballot drops into a sealed, secure ballot bin
- At close of polls, scanner prints “results tape”
- Results saved in an encrypted thumb drive
