South Carolina Community Development Association

Membership Application

Who we are and what we do

The SC Community Development Association provides a forum for learning about community development through workshops and seminars. Its members include municipal, county, regional and state community development professionals; employees of private companies with an interest in community development; elected officials and volunteers. For more information, visit www.masc.sc (keyword: SCCDA).

Online membership enrollment and renewal

The membership deadline is January 31. Save time and postage by logging on to www.masc.sc for membership enrollment/renewal for yourself and/or others from your organization. Online membership fees must be paid by Visa or MasterCard.

Membership levels and fees

Active Membership – $60

An individual with professional responsibility for community development in a municipality, county, state or federal agency, regional council of governments or nonprofit agency (e.g., community and economic development professionals, municipal or county managers/administrators and elected officials).

Additional Active Membership – $25

An individual from the same municipality, county, agency or council of governments as an existing member who is interested in the principles and practices of community development.

Associate Membership – $135

Any private company or vendor who is interested in the principles and practices of community development and is actively engaged in providing products, services or information to municipal, county, regional or state agencies, and nonprofit organizations.
